

Executive Profile

Joseph A. Forline

Vice President – Customer Operations

Public Service Electric and Gas Company

Joseph A. Forline was elected vice president – customer operations of Public Service Electric and Gas Company (PSE&G), in December 2006. Prior, he was division manager – gas operations at PSE&G.

Mr. Forline has worked for PSE&G for over 23 years, in areas such as gas operations, gas engineering, and appliance services. He has played a key leadership role in PSE&G's total quality programs, WorryFree contract expansion, gas construction efficiency efforts, and damage prevention programs.

Mr. Forline has been a member of the American Gas Association for 20 years, on the board of advisors for the Rutgers Camden School of Business since 1996, and is a member of the PEGPAC executive committee. Mr. Forline has been appointed to the EPRI Energy Efficiency Initiative Executive Committee, the board of directors for the March of Dimes Southern New Jersey chapter, and a member of the Leadership - New Jersey, class of 2006, a board member for the United Way of Burlington County and has recently been appointed to the Board of Trustees for the Cooper Hospital Foundation.

Mr. Forline is active in youth athletics in the areas of basketball, football, and baseball. He is a former president of the Moorestown, New Jersey, Youth Football Association and coaches youth basketball.

Mr. Forline has a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering from Rutgers University – College of Engineering, and a Masters of Business Administration degree from Rutgers University in Camden. He is also a graduate of the University of Michigan Executive Development Program.