

Executive Profile

Anne E. Hoskins

Vice President – Federal Affairs and Policy

PSEG Services Corporation

Anne E. Hoskins was named vice president – federal affairs and policy of PSEG Services Corporation, in April 2007. In this position she will be responsible for PSEG’s federal governmental affairs, and will have a leadership role in the development of public policy positions on issues affecting the company and its operations in the United States and various foreign countries.

Prior to joining PSEG Ms. Hoskins served as senior and regulatory counsel for Verizon Wireless, working from offices in Washington and Bedminster, New Jersey. She advised on federal and state regulatory issues and was responsible for regulatory matters in 14 states. She also developed and advocated policy and legal positions before the Federal Communications Commission.

Ms. Hoskins’ prior experience includes regulatory counsel at Bell Atlantic in New York, an associate in the Newark law firm of McCarter and English, an attorney in the United States Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, program coordinator for the Center for Policy Alternatives in Washington, and policy adviser in the Governor’s Office of Policy and Planning in New Jersey.

Ms. Hoskins holds a Doctor of Law degree from Harvard Law School, a Master of Public Affairs degree from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University, and a Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University.