

PSEG

Executive Profile

William J. Metzger

Vice President and Assistant Controller - Power

PSEG Services Corporation

William J. Metzger was named vice president and assistant controller – Power of PSEG Services Corporation, in December 2006. He had been the assistant controller – Power, since 2002. In this role he was responsible for the accounting for all activities of PSEG Power, including trading.

Prior to coming to PSEG Mr. Metzger was controller and chief accounting officer at Covanta Energy Corporation, a $1 billion independent power producer. Prior to that he worked for Deloitte & Touche and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Mr. Metzger holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from the University of Illinois.