

Executive Profile

Thomas M. O'Flynn

Executive Vice President

Public Service Enterprise Group Incorporated

Chief Financial Officer

Public Service Enterprise Group Incorporated

Public Service Electric and Gas Company

PSEG Energy Holdings

PSEG Power

Thomas M. O'Flynn was named executive vice president and chief financial officer for Public Service Enterprise Group Incorporated (PSEG), in July 2001. He is also the chief financial officer of Public Service Electric and Gas Company (PSE&G), PSEG Power (Power), and PSEG Energy Holdings (Holdings). Mr. O'Flynn had been president and chief operating officer of Holdings, since July 2008, overseeing the operations of its two main subsidiaries: PSEG Global and PSEG Resources.

Mr. O'Flynn is responsible for all financial functions as well as planning, strategy and development across PSEG, PSE&G and Power.

Mr. O'Flynn came to PSEG with 15 years of experience at Morgan Stanley, where he specialized in corporate finance for electric and gas utility and power clients. As a managing director in Morgan Stanley's global power and utility group and head of the North American region, he worked with major energy companies on many strategic advisory and financing transactions; including mergers and acquisitions, IPO offerings and capital raising assignments. Also, while at Morgan Stanley he served as a financial advisor to PSEG, prior to becoming the managing director of Morgan Stanley's global power and utility group.

Mr. O'Flynn holds a degree from Northwestern University in economics and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Chicago. He currently serves as the chairman of the finance executive advisory committee of the Edison Electric Institute (EEI) and also serves on the board of directors for Nuclear Electric Insurance Limited (NEIL), the New Jersey Performing Arts Center (NJPAC) and The Newark Museum.